

JON M. HUNTSMAN, JR.
Governor

GARY R. HERBERT
Lieutenant Governor

State of Utah Department of Commerce Division of Securities

FRANCINE A. GIANI
Executive Director

THAD LEVAR
Deputy Director

WAYNE KLEIN
Director of Securities

NEWS RELEASE

September 12, 2007

Mortgage Company Promoter is Ordered to Cease Taking Money from Investors Investors were told their money was guaranteed to earn 20%, but they lost $40,000 ...

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah – An order was issued today against Robert Michael Fain, of Cottonwood Heights, and Real-Prints, Inc. after the two failed to respond to allegations from the Division of Securities that they sold securities illegally. Fain and Real-Prints were accused in June 2006, along with others, of illegally taking $55,000 in investments from three members of a family. The Division alleged that the promoters claimed the money would be used to place kiosks in shopping malls to generate leads for mortgage loans and loan refinancing. The investors were promised 20% return and told the investment was guaranteed and had no risk.

Two related companies, American Mortgage Alliance, Inc. and National Mortgage Alliance, LLC, have ceased doing business and have permitted their corporate charters to expire. Default orders were entered against them on August 2, 2007. Also named in the Order to Show Cause were two other managers of the companies: Daron W. LeBlanc, of Orem, and Antonius (Tony) M. Versteeg, of Sandy. The case is continuing against LeBlanc and Versteeg.

According to the Division, Leblanc solicited one of the investors, a co-worker, in May 2002. LeBlanc showed the investor a spreadsheet for American Mortgage Alliance (AMA) and said the company would generate a profit. When the investor said he did not have money to invest, LeBlanc helped the investor get a second mortgage on his home. The investor was later encouraged to increase the line of credit on his home loan. His parents also were encouraged to invest. One family member was later convinced to invest an additional $15,000 in Real-Prints, an inkless fingerprinting business, as a means of recouping her losses on the mortgage investment.

Investors were not told that Fain had pleaded guilty to securities fraud in 1996 and had been ordered to pay $308,850 in restitution in that case or that LeBlanc and Versteeg also had been sued and had judgments filed against them. Fain falsely told investors in Real-Prints that the company would make $5 million in profits after one year of operations.

The Default Order finds that Fain and Real-Prints engaged in securities fraud, sold securities that were not registered, and sold securities when they were not licensed. They are ordered to cease and desist violating the law and to pay $110,000 in fines.

Separately, criminal charges were filed on May 10 against Fain, LeBlanc, and Versteeg for their conduct in taking money from these investors. Fain pleaded guilty on August 31 and will be sentenced on October 26. The criminal case is pending against LeBlanc and Versteeg.